

Why Teach Music?

Music is a Science.

It is exact, specific; and it demands exact acoustics. A conductor's full score is a chart, a graph which indicates frequencies, intensities, volume changes, melody and harmony all at once and with the most exact control of time.

Music is Mathematical.

It is rhythmically based on the subdivisions of time into fractions which must be done instantaneously, not worked out on paper.

Music is a Foreign Language.

Most of the terms are in Italian, German or French; and the notation is certainly not English - but a highly developed kind of shorthand that uses symbols to represent ideas. The semantics of music is the most complete and universal language.

Music is History.

Music usually reflects the environment and times of its creation, often even the country and/or racial feeling. Music history shows composers habits, culture and beliefs through the times of history.

Music is Physical Education. It requires fantastic coordination of fingers, hands, arms, lip, cheek and facial muscles, in addition to extraordinary control of the diaphragmatic, back, stomach, and chest muscles, which respond instantly to the sound the ear hears and the mind interprets.

Music is Multi-Cultural. Although different around the world, it is found in every culture. It demonstrates a deep rooted history of cultures and beliefs via the sung word, or instrumental music.

Music is Art. Music is all these things, but most of all, music is art. It allows a human being to take all these dry, technically boring (but difficult) techniques and use them to create emotion. That is one thing science cannot duplicate; humanism, feeling, emotion, call it what you will, that which differentiates the humans species from all other life forms on the planet.

THAT IS WHY WE TEACH MUSIC!

Not because we expect our students to major in music
Not because we expect them to play or sing all their life
Not so they can relax
Not so they can have fun

BUT - so they will be human so they will recognize beauty
so they will be sensitive so they will be closer to an infinite beyond this world so they will have something to cling to so they will have more love, more compassion, more gentleness, more good- in short, more life.

Of what value will it be to make a prosperous living unless you know how to live?

THAT IS WHY WE TEACH MUSIC!
